The screenshot shows a software interface with a yellow header bar containing the word "Warnings". Below this is a list of 103 items, each preceded by a small yellow triangle icon. The items are mostly identical, listing rows of data that were ignored due to invalid customer names. The data includes various route types like "Start of Route - Driver Preparation & Documentation" and "Break Compliance - California Law". There are also entries for "Fueling Procedures - Diesel Trucks" and "Fueling Procedures - Gasoline Vans". The bottom of the screen features a toolbar with buttons for "Preview & Check Conflicts" and "Upload Route".
